TORTURING ECZEMA

Editor Iowa Plain Dealer Cured of Insufferable Itching and Pain by the Cuticura Remedies.

No Less Than Five Physicians Consulted. Their Combined Wisdom Followed Without Benefit.

I am sixty-six years old. In August, 1889, was troubled with the peculiar skin disease to which people of my age are subject, known among medical men as eczema. Its first appearance was near the ankles. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one raw sore from legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of the arms, the legs and arms greatly swollen with an itching burning pain, without cessation. Although the best medical advice attainable was employed, no less than five physicians of the place being consulted and the prescriptions being the result of their combined wisdom, the disease, though apparently checked, would recur in a few days as bad as ever; during its progress my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an experiment I began the use of CUTICURA, following the simple and plain instructions given with the Remedies, and in four weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in color, the itching and pain entirely relieved.

CHILIAN NEWS.

NEW YORK—The Herald prints this: LIMA, Sept. 24—According to your instructions I have investigated the case of the mysterious refugees who were smuggled aboard the flagship San Francisco in the harbor of Valparaiso on Sept. 13th, the night before the vessel sailed for Callao, a fact which gave rise to the rumor generally believed that ex-President Balmaceda was one of them, it being argued that such pains to preserve secrecy would not have been taken with any less important personage. I find that the refugees were two in number, namely Ovalle Vicuna and Colonel Vidaurer, the deputy and the president of the court that tried the young men for conspiracy at Los Canos on the day before the battle of Coucon. The prisoners, forty-two in number, whose ages ranged from 16 to 18, were afterwards massacred and their dead bodies subjected to frightful indignities.

anticipation of an interesting event which is expected to occur very soon. Society is much agitated, and although only the nearest of Mrs. Cleveland's friends are admitted to her presence, cards and other remembrances from her friends pour in steadily.

Action brought in the district court of the first judicial district of the territory of Arizona in and for the county of Cochise, and the complaint filed in the said county of Cochise in the office of clerk of said district court.

The Territory of Arizona sends greeting to H. E. Lea, defendant.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the district court of the first judicial district of the territory of Arizona, in and for the county of Cochise, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the days of service) after the service on you of this summons, (if served in this county or if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days otherwise within thirty days), or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to foreclose a certain mortgage of real and personal property made by defendant to plaintiff to secure the payment of two thousand dollars with interest and for the relief demanded in the complaint on file herein to which you are hereby referred.

Given under my hand and the seal of the district court of the first judicial district of the territory of Arizona in and for the county of Cochise, this 26th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (Seal.) A. L. EMASUTL, Clerk.

The Stockman says: J. H. Powers Thomas B. Sorin and Marion F. Fox, came up from Rucker on Tuesday afternoon. They both went to the city by Tuesday night's train. Messrs Sorin and Fox are both old printers and of course called on the Stockman. Mr. Fox returned to the ranch Wednesday morning.
